

Introducing the Cigna Care Card

An easy way to provide financial assistance to your employees

As many employers continue to face operational and financial challenges during the COVID-19 crisis, Cigna is committed to helping clients support their employees' unique needs, however we can.

To help protect the health, well-being and peace of mind of our customers, Cigna has developed a suite of COVID-19 solutions for employees who've lost their health coverage. Among these solutions is the Cigna Care Card powered by Alegeus.*

The Cigna Care Card is a convenient debit card employees can use for necessary family and living expenses. Employer contributions to the debit cards are tax-free to employees and fully deductible to you. Here are some other advantages of the Cigna Care Card.

- You control how much you contribute – The minimum contribution is $250 per employee, but you can contribute whatever amount you wish, and add more at any time.
- You control how the dollars are spent – Choose the categories of expenses you wish to cover: Groceries and prescriptions, health care, clothing, utility bills, education and child care, emergency expenses and more.
- Unused funds are returned to you – Unlike cash or gift cards, you only pay for what's used on the cards.
- Easy online access – Employees can access transactions and keep track of their card balance.
